IMMIGRATION LITERATURE.

To judge by the Irish papers received by the mail, there must be much weeping by the waters of the Naposta: the tears of the unfortunate emigrants have trickled into the hard Bahia Blanca "tosca", have oozed into the meandering Indian rivulet, and rippling along Colonel Howard's buoys and nauseous "cangrejales" have rolled in a mighty wave to St. George's Channels flooding the shores of both kingdoms. We doubt much if the Israelites, weeping on the banks of the Euphrates, ever raised such a wail of woe as that still pealing in the columns of the Irish newspapers. "Consigned to Hell" is the heading of an article in the Dublin Freeman, describing the unutterable sufferings of the Dresden emigrants in the Argentine Republic. 'Traffic in Human Flesh," Deplorable Condition of Irish Men and Women," "Scene of human misery," "First Horrors," "A Living Hell," "Treated Like Cattle," "Wretched Scene of Human Misery," "Ten Thousand People Starving in the streets of Buenos Aires" are the headings that will convey to the minds of the Irish people that the Argentine Republic is hell on earth—and all this after the extraordinary hospitality which the emigrants met at the hands of the Buenos Aires British Immigration Committee!! When we consider that in the last four months one hundred thousand emigrants landed on these shores, without the help of a "Dresden committee" to carry the very spoons from the soup tureens to their hungry mouths, or the aid of private charity that supplied blankets and clothing to warm the young and old: when we think that out of these one hundred thousand people the only emigrants who were specially cared and fed, specially placed in situations here and outside, specially organized in a body to start a colony in common, are also the only unfortunates, since nobody has raised a hue and cry about the fate of the poor Italians and Spaniards, who are all hard at work now making and saving money; when we consider all this, we begin to think that the Irish papers are right in their propaganda against emigration to this country, for where the Italians find a paradise the enlightened Irish press sees a hell; where the former see lucrative employment the latter discover a traffic in human flesh. Verily, we live and learn; and we now gather an idea of how much better off our countrymen are at home than here, after reading the harrowing description of their sufferings, which, we beg to state, are the via-crucis of every immigrant landing on these shores, and the Italians and Spaniards take it as a matter of course and do not complain, perhaps because they never knew any better.

It is very melancholy, indeed, that the Argentine Government, the British Immigration Committee, and the community in general did not succeed in meeting the expectations of the Dresden emigrants. It would have been a great satisfaction to all if they had been provided with better accommodation and presented with titles to free farms with neat little houses, oxen, sheep, and all necessary agricultural implements to go to work immediately. The immigration agents who promised all these things to the poor fellows in Great Britain should be tried and punished, and the zeal of the Argentine agents in the Information Offices should be curbed, to avoid a repetition of such charges as those made by the Irish press. But, taking all in all, we would call on our contemporaries on the other side of the ocean to study the matter and inquire into the cause how, out of one hundred thousand emigrants that arrived here in the last four months, only the few that came in the Dresden and some disappointed Belgians and French have raised any complaint against the Government or attempted to blacken the fair reputation of the country. It is sheer nonsense to talk of horrors, of human flesh traffic, cattle treatment, etc: all that may apply to Central Africa, but not to a country which is receiving an influx of immigrants at the rate of one thousand per diem nearly. There are, no doubt, many reasons for complaint, there is great room for improvement in our management of immigration business; but let our Irish colleagues remember that the country they so much decry has given home and wealth to at least twenty thousand Irishmen in the last thirty years; let them remember that Irishmen fought for this country, fill the pages of its history, and rose to the highest positions in the land. Irish and Scotch sheepfarmers in this republic hold from 25 to 30 millions of sheep, the clip of their flocks never falling below 100 million lbs. wool. They possess likewise at least 1600 square leagues of land, say eleven million acres, in Buenos Ayres, Santa Fe, Entre Rios, and Cordoba, which, with the houses and fences, represent a value of 93 million dollars. The aggregate of pastoral wealth in the hands of Irish and Scotch, and their children, amounts to 162 millions, say 33 millions sterling, figures of 1884; that wealth has probably doubled since then. 'Noblesse oblige'. In the light of such figures, the country can lay claim to some recognition on the part of the Irish people.

Let it be borne in mind that those thousands of Irishmen who have risen here to rank and fortune, came to this country under far more disadvantageous circumstances than the emigrants that landed from the Dresden. They came at a period when steamers were out of the question, when railways were unknown, when chronic rebellion permanently endangered life and property, and when the camp—that camp that has built such huge fortunes—lacked all the comforts that to-day make life even tolerable in the wastes of Patagonia or woods of Misiones. Those pioneers had to fight their own battles without the helping hand of an Immigration Department or of an Immigration Committee of British residents. They did not complain of the trouble of carrying their trunks on their backs and sleeping on the marble benches of the Plaza Victoria, nor of squatting in the open camp and living on "mate amargo" and meat, sans milk and tea, sans bread and butter, and sans bed or house. Times, however, have changed and the standard of comfort has risen, and great allowances must be made for men and women accustomed to sleep in beds and reared in comforts that the Argentine Republic has not yet incorporated into the mode of existence among the working classes.

In view of such facts, we are the first to applaud the propaganda of the Irish press against wholesale emigration to the Plate. We trust that the warnings of our colleagues will not lose their deterrent effect through their outrageous exaggeration of this country's drawbacks, and that they will effectually put a stop to emigration "en masse." By all means let them deter unfortunate, penniless people from leaving their homes in shiploads with their wives and children, to seek fortune in a land where the struggle for life, at least for the man without further capital than his energy and health, is very keen, and where the working-man, to secure an independent position, must be prepared to forego comforts, work hard, much harder than in Great Britain, and 'rough it" for years.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO

Captain Bateman, the popular commander of the Apolo, brought up a large list of Buenos Ayreans on Friday morning. The Apolo is now becoming the favorite steamer on the Montevidean route, owing to the great attentions and affability of her Commander.

Mr. Robert Crawford C. E., the contractor for the extension works of the Central Uruguay R.R., has arrived from Tacuarembo, and is staying in the Hotel Oriental. Mr. Coghlan C.E. has gone back to Buenos Ayres, and Mr. Barker, Sec. of the Buenos Ayres Great Southern, leaves in the Atrato with Mrs. Barker for England.

The grand banquet of the Obras Publicas on Wednesday evening brought together many of the bank managers of Montevideo, a rather rare sight, as there is such fighting and pulling in the Montevidean money market that bank Directors are not often seen together. The difficulty between the Obras Publicas Co. and the Italian Bank has merged into a lawsuit which most of the shareholders of the Italian Bank deplore, and which may possibly result in a change in the board of management of that bank, which will at once settle the whole dispute.

The sale of the Union Tramway for 1½ millions is still pending and not yet concluded. It seems that at the last meeting of shareholders there was not a sufficient number of shares represented to despatch the business, and therefore the meeting had to be adjourned. It is rumoured in Montevideo that a new tramway concession, bought up by a syndicate, is being negotiated in London. This new line will run from the Custom House to the Tres Cruces. All the tramways in Montevideo are doing a roaring business. The coaches run much faster than in Buenos Aires, having three horses, and the fares are far and away cheaper than in Buenos Aires.

The English Bank of the River Plate is pushing ahead its new building in Calle 25 de Mayo. It will be perhaps the finest bank building in Montevideo, and the splendid blocks of granite which block up the side walks attract the admiration of Buenos Aireans, who build only with bricks. Mr. McCrindle, the manager of this bank, is most popular, and under his very able management the bank has secured an immense business. He believes in the great future of the country, and the market backs him up. Most of the large and remunerative financial transactions in the Montevidean market have been done by this flourishing bank.

The Commercial Bank which is the oldest bank in Montevideo, does also an immense business. Mr. Igngouville has for the last 20 years managed this bank with marked ability. It is a bank that always has a large capital at its disposal, and during the dull winter months it usually employs its money in discounts in the Buenos Aires market. When going to the Santos funeral on Wednesday I met Mr. Thurburn, the Manager of the London and River Plate Bank, walking into town. Nothing like exercise for a manager. Bank managers in Montevideo have always the great difficulty to contend with of breakfasting too early. Eight o'clock breakfast for a bank manager is certain dyspepsia, and the result is that after a few years of even the most successful management, but with early breakfast, there is a breakdown in the digestion, and milk and toast diet the sequel.

The Hotel Oriental it seems has not been sold, and according to Don Ramon is not likely to be sold. It is now doing a first-rate business and the house is full. Some of the rooms are being fitted up, anew, papered, and newly furnished Buela's news room in front is always up to the mark, and the freshest dates from all parts are always to be found on the tables. Buela conducts his Telegrafo Maritimo as in days of yore, when it was the most neway organ in Montevideo.

All the ladies in Montevideo have to send up to Buenos Ayres for their hats, and in the 'tiendas' things sell for the same price in gold that they can be bought for in paper in Buenos Ayres. Most of the Montevidean ladies now wear collars of gold, which are very becoming and much admired.

In fashionable circles the great talk is the marriage of Mr. Dormal of B. Ayres with Miss Sosa. It promises to be a very grand affair.

The Bachelors' Ball in B. Ayres is the engrossing topic amongst the young English and American ladies in Montevideo. Numerous invitations have been sent down from Buenos Ayres, and many of the English Montevidean belles may be expected up for the occasion.

Mrs. Denby, widow of Mr. Peter Denby, is to be married in a few days; also her daughter.

The fortunes made in Obras Publicas shares within the last two months surpass anything done in B. Ayres. There are parties who bought 500 and 1000 of these shares at 25 and 30, and still hold them and refuse to sell until they are at 150. Merchants and others in Montevideo approve very highly of Mr. Rufino Varela's stopping the gold speculation in Buenos Ayres. They did not think we had in the Argentine Republic a man of sufficient pluck to put down the nuisance and fight all the brokers. They consider the fight over now, the victory of Varela complete, and the Buenos Ayres market master of the situation and the gold ring abolished for ever.

In natives circles there is a flutter amongst the ladies, and all who can are preparing to go to Buenos Ayres, to join in the festivities for President Tajes. It is said that over 100 families will go up to Buenos Ayres for the occasion, and another 100 have refused; the Montevidean dressmakers are working night and day to have the ball-dresses ready in time; and it is probable that the patio of the Government House in Buenos Ayres will be far too small for the occasion. They say in Montevideo that President Juarez Celman has taken the Politeama theatre for the 25th, so as to give free seats to all the Montevideans. It will be the greatest Government fete ever known in these countries and will cost both Republics very much money, but everything on both sides of the Plate is at present so prosperous that the expense of this international feast is considered but a trifle. Montevidean estancieros complain that their lands do not rise in value, on a parity with those it Buenos Ayres. There are still fine estancia properties offering in the market very cheap, and immensely under the prices paid in Buenos Ayres.

The sale of the Negrette Estancia in Buenos Ayres for £200,000 has perfectly staggered the Oriental estanciero, who asks when will any estancia in the Banda Oriental ever fetch such a price.

MR. GOSCHEN'S SURPLUS.

TYPHOID ON THE RIVIERA.

Antibes, April 9th.

At a time when the British tax payer is groaning over an extra vote of 21 millions sterling for the Navy it is pleasant to find that the year ending 31st ult. results in a surplus of nearly 3 millions sterling. The revenue has produced much more than was expected, the expenditure has been considerably under the estimates. It may at first seem strange that so experienced a financier as Mr. Goschen could have been so far astray in his reckoning as to forecast the revenue at £86,800,000, whereas it reaches £88,500,000. Strictly speaking, a surplus is as much matter for reproach in a Minister of Finance as a deficit, since he has no right to extract from the taxpayer a shilling more than is necessary. But the public are generally only too glad to welcome such an announcement, under the impression that they will have so much less to pay the following year. It often happens, meantime, that a surplus is the forerunner of extravagant outlay. For example, the French Republic some ten years ago had a surplus for several years running, which caused Mr. Grevy and his Ministers utterly to lose their heads and plunge into financial excesses that have culminated in the present confusion. Happily in England there is less danger of such recklessness, and we may regard the surplus as a most favourable event, a feather in Mr. Goschen's cap and a circumstance that will decidedly help the Government, recently so discredited before the eyes of the world.

That portion of the surplus which arises from increase of revenue is a significant proof that trade is brisk and the wealth of the nation augmenting. When the revenue increases two per cent, as in the present case, we cannot boldly assert that the public fortune has unquestionably risen in the same degree, but we may consider it highly probable. This would mean that the past year has added 180 millions sterling to the accumulated wealth of the nation, say £5 per inhabitant, the ordinary accumulation being about £4 per inhabitant. Here we have another proof that however depressed our agricultural interests, the prosperity of the nation continues unchecked. Lord Liverpool called attention to this coincidence 60 years ago, and added that good times for the farmers meant bad times for England in general.

Another part of the surplus is caused by the fact that expenditure last year was £1,130,000 less than voted. This I am totally at a loss to understand, unless it be that several accounts have been left unpaid. Be it as it may, Mr. Goschen says he has £2,800,000 on hand after closing the books for the year ending March 31st. 1889. Such a piece of news must fill with astonishment and envy the finance Ministers of Italy and France, who find their balances on the wrong side of the books. Telegrams published this morning announce that the Italian deficit is even more than was thought and reaches close upon ten millions sterling, namely 240 millions francs.

What to do with the surplus will be the next question in England. In my opinion the Government ought to reduce the duties on tea and coffee, which weight so heavily on the working classes. Better still would it be to hand over the sum to the new London County Council for the erection of suitable dwellings, on the Peabody plan, for the inhabitants of the "slums". Nothing is more urgently needed, and the sum in question would suffice to house 90,000 persons or one third of the "slums" population. However, as the money has been collected from the nation it is hardly reasonable to expect that it will be devoted for the purposes of one city, and that city the richest on the face of the earth. Humanity might suggest, that it be distributed among the evicted families in Ireland, but the mention of this in the present House of Commons would be received with roars of laughter.

P—S Since writing the above Mr. Secretary Kennedy's report from Rome makes the deficit 445 millions francs, say 18 millions sterling. This is awful.

Never in the memory of Mr. Wyllie, the oldest resident, has the Riviera been so crowded as this year. The profits of the Monte Carlo gaming-table in February reached £156,000. The doctors in Cannes and Nice have their hands so full of patients that they cannot answer every call. Typhoid is carrying off numbers of people. Suicides were also above par last month. The coffin-makers are doing the briskest trade ever known. Meantime life at Cannes and Nice is carried on at high pressure, and the whirl of a London season is less than what goes on in the twin cities of the Riviera, almost in sight of my window. The local papers publish only balls, breakfasts, routs, pic-nics and private theatricals. It is by mere chance that you enquire after Mr. A. or Mr. B. and learn of their death. Lord Portarlington and Lady Duffy, the Marquis of Ely and Mrs. Gardner and others less known have died since my arrival at Antibes six weeks ago. Their deaths are in the London papers "Died at Cannes" or at Nice: the notice fails to add "of typhoid fever", because the relatives (as I know in one case) have had the weakness to promise the doctor or the hotel-keeper to conceal the cause of death. Lord Portarlington, the only good landlord in Ireland, was taken off at Nice, as also Lady Duffy, a young woman. Lord Ely died at Cannes, last week aged 40, and Mrs. Gardner (wife of the M.P. for Windsor) aged about 45. The latter had just built the superb chateau, Louis XII, on a hill above Cannes, and moved into it three months ago. She was daughter of the beneficent Mr. Gardner of London, who gave £330,000 for a Blind Asylum.

I have no doubt that hundreds of persons must have fallen victims this season at Cannes and Nice. As for the former place the smells are worse than those of Tunis and Cologne combined, with Bahia thrown in for "yapa". The doctors, different from those in most countries, seem to care more for the reputation of the place than for the health of the public. They will explain to you that the pestilential stench along the beach is simply the smell of sea weed, and if you complain of the odours through town they will assure you that the "surface-smells" are quite innocuous, and that Cannes is exceedingly healthy. The season here is so brief that nobody cares to think of sanitary improvements. It is a question of making as much money as possible among the tradespeople, and of going through an incessant round of enjoyment among English visitors, in the ten or twelve weeks that the season lasts. A month hence Cannes will be empty; those who have died will be utterly forgotten, and the survivors hastening to Piccadilly and Belgravia.

Between typhoid and Monte Carlo the future of the Riviera looks doubtful, and yet both these evils could be easily remedied. Unfortunately, every effort is made to cloak up these curses and their deadly effects. At Monte Carlo, when the garden is closed each night four guards and a doctor make the round of the arbours and thickets: in the last five years, as Dr. N. certifies, no less than 30 corpses, either cases of suicide or murder, have been found. Most of the suicides, however, occur at the hotels in Nice. As for the latest murder, that of Mr. Geisendorf, the Italian police have arrested a man named Sassoli with the victim's watch, chain and walking-stick, and the Genoese authorities have evidence that he followed Geisendorf from Monte Carlo. He is a noted criminal, but has been lately acting as a spy for the Milan police, and the latter are working indefatigably to get him declared innocent. Of course it is little matter whether he be found guilty or not, as there is no capital punishment, and he is certain to be at large again after a few months or years. The impunity for crime at Monte Carlo is such that we may expect to hear of other events of this kind. All the cut-throats and fast women in Europe are there; among such company you see now and then Lord Randolph Churchill or other British grandees, who ought to be ashamed, and are not. The law of the place is that no native of Monte Carlo, Nice or Cannes, or of the Alpes Maritimes Department is admitted. The tables are exclusively for the use of "foreign visitors", and a nice lot they are.

M. G. M.

PUBLIC WORKS.

THE GAUDENCIO BATHS.

As there were some doubts as to the exact limits of all properties situated on the river, nobody having taken the trouble to order or carry out observations of the medium high tide level before our very eyes, the National Government sent a note yesterday to the Department of National Engineers with instructions to immediately survey the river frontage within municipal jurisdiction and fix the limits at the medium high tide level. The department is also ordered to draw up a map wherein the limits of private properties and the line of water will be minutely drawn. This will but an end to very many dubious hopes in the real-estate line.

The National Department of Engineers applied yesterday to the National Government for $20,000 to study the exact position of the river line in front of the city and in order to resolve the knotty question—if the proposed sea-wall of Messrs Portalis Freres and Carbonnier and Co. will in any way affect or injure the Northern entrance channel or other parts of the Buenos Ayres Port Works.

Sea-baths in this city will soon be a reality. Dr B. Novaro applied yesterday to the Minister of the Interior for approval of the statutes of the Baños Publicos de Agua de mar y dulce de la Capital Company. The pioneer of this great enterprise, which looked like a chimera when 1st mooted, is Colonel Carlos Gaudencio who has started a large company with a capital of 8,000,000 dollars to carry out his idea. The Board of the new company is as follows:—

Chairman—Dr. B. Novaro
Vice-Chairman—Dr. C. Gallarini
Treasurer—Sr. M. Magdaleno
Pro-Treasurer—Sr. A. M. Amadeo
Manager—Col. Gaudencio.
Directors—F. Benguria, E. Bonifacio, A. A. Funes, G. Ramirez, J. Maglione, A. Battilana. The Medical Board comprises: T. B. Gil, P. N. Arata, F. A. Tamini, J. M. Astigueta, A. F. Crespo, Julian Fernandez, and Maglione.

The sea-water will be conveyed to to this city in pipes from some place on the San Borombon Bay. Influential names of capitalists and medical men are at the back of the concern, and there is no longer any doubt that it will be carried out and with every prospect of success. The company own already very valuable ground at the foot of Calle Callao on the river: since that extensive property was secured it has advanced enormously in price.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent)

GOOD FRIDAY.

April 19th.

By a strange conjunction of the planets Good Friday and Primrose Day fall together, and a more primrosy Good Friday I do not remember for years.

It is our first day of Summer. The chesnuts in the parks are bursting into leaf and the drooping hyacinths, starved by a week of chill and wet, seem to recover their elasticity and spring-like tints. I felt quite jaunty, and bought a bunch of primroses and tried to imagine myself a conservative. The sensation was not unpleasant. I suddenly became possessed of a vague, automatic, almost animalistic consciousness of superiority that required no thought no effort to direct. In Ireland, I should in that state of mind, or of sensorial irritation, have made an excellent R. M. I did not feel cruel: on the contrary, such was my self-satisfaction, I had a desire to patronise all pleasant things; even the girls, and one in particular, in a veal dress. . . . "In a what?" Oh yes, I am right. I am quoting from Mrs Mantalini. She says, "Old rose" "crushed strawberry" "faded rose" and similar sentimental names are exhausted: now that pretty soft shade of pink, deeper than flesh, paler than salmon, is called veal." There's a colour to go out a walk with.

Alas! in addition to the bunch of primroses, I bought a Daily News; and the dear News is enough to paralyse any man's fandangoes. Another letter from Sir T. Farrer on Argentine beef caught my eye, and I became persuaded that conservatism is not only a state of mind but a state of sin. At this moment and upon this solemn day when some are at church and others playing football, the din of politics is hushed. The West is deserted and the East is at Hampstead or Epping. The stock-exchange, pleased with its 2½ per cent bank rate, has gone to the sea-side—to Brighton or Eastbourn and places where they lush. Some of us are left here alone to dream and ruminate. It was a lovely morn. The sound of the deep toned bells from the Abbey and Saint Paul's was wafted over the budding beauties of Regent's Park and seemed to remind us that the Garden of Eden was but the first blush of a rennovated world. The terrors of the cooling globe had ceased. Prophets have come, and sacrifices have been made, not in vain. But we are still not wholly redeemed. Primitive man, and his one law of grabry survive in Balfours and Salisburis. Sin, like murder, will out. The fair face of the Unionist and Conservative party is full of cruptions which may yield to skilful treatment, but they are dangerous symptoms. You know that the Gladstonian candidate for the Central division of Birmingham was defeated by the Unionist Mr. Albert Bright by an enormous majority—over 3000. The Liberals had some consolation in gaining a seat at Rochester on the following day, but their chief hope is in the breaking out of fresh squabbles between the Liberal-Unionists and the Conservatives—squabbles that seem to have been only temporarily patched up in Birmingham to save the seat from falling into the hands of the hated Gladstonians. The quarrel is very simple. Birmingham is a Liberal stronghold; and even in the Central division filled with doctors and lawyers and shopmen of Conservative instincts, the Liberals have a large majority. Mr Joseph Chamberlain says that before he went to America he made a compact with Lord Randolph Churchill that in the event of Mr John Bright's decease the Conservatives should not contest the seat on their own account in opposition to the Liberal Unionists who supported them against the Gladstonians. This Lord Randolph now expressly denies, and affirms that if in the interest of unionism he chose to retire from the contest in favour of Mr. Albert Bright's candidature, he did so of his own free will and by reason of no compact made with Mr. Chamberlain, who now chooses to assume the whole credit of Mr. Albert Bright's success. The quarrel will not be confined to Birmingham. The whole conservative party is chaffed at its dependency upon Mr. Chamberlain and wishes to throw off the radical-unionist yoke in the hope that in the battle preparing, Lord Herrington and a few of his whig followers will go over to them bag and baggage, leaving Mr. Chamberlain to make the best terms he can with his former allies. And now we come again to the Argentine beef question, which has got mixed by the adroitness of Sir Thomas Farrer, with the larger question of the Sugar Convention. In an evil hour one of the Conservative Ministers, trying to find an excuse for the convention, said there was a sugar famine at hand, and only 11 days consumption in the country. The stupid man meant to say cane sugar. It was too late. The speculators saw their chance and up went sugar 50 per cent. The grocers with stocks in hand are still selling at 2½d. per lb., but next week they will put up the price to 3½d., and it might go to the old figure of 5d. All this to benefit a few refiners who Lord Salisbury, Sir John Lubbock and others assure us employ 50,000 men. Mr. Mathieson in the confectionary trade says it is no such thing, but that in the jam and confectionary trade there are 75,000 men employed, and already those people are advised by the radical papers not to combine and make a demonstration in Palace yard as the match girls did some years ago. What a lesson! All this and perhaps much more to come is the fruit of touching the very hem of free trade, which my Lord Salisbury and his man Worms, thought could be done with impunity, just to legislate for the interests of a few sugar refiners and without raising the price of sugar to the consumer a farthing a pound. In the midst of this agitation the sugar convention will come on for discussion, and what will Mr. Chamberlain do if at loggerheads with the Tories? and how can any Liberal Unionist defend the retaliatory duties proposed by the government? Lord Hartington to whom all politics mean his interest in Irish estates, may not trouble himself about free trade, and even Mr. Goshen who is attached to the Government in a "paid capacity" may find excuses for recauting the opinions of a life time, but this cannot be the case with the majority of the English gentlemen who are still Liberals but do not happen to be Home Rulers. The Government will have to throw over Baron de Worms and his Sugar Convention, or run the risk of a defeat that will be the beginning of the end. The sin is in them. It was bound to come out sooner or later.

Romantic suicides seem to be the order of the day, but beyond such things there is nothing in the papers and indeed this evening there were no papers. We are in full holiday tide, and it is likely to last the best part of next week. I shall write by the Pacific s.s. to-morrow.

NEW COACHES FOR THE OLD NORTHERN—THE CHUBUT LINE— THE PACIFIC EARNING ITS CRUST.— THE PULESTON CONCESSION. FURTHER EXTRACTS FROM INSPECTOR QUESADA'S REPORT

A befitting occasion has been chosen to inaugurate that much maligned line of railway from Chubut to Bahia Nueva. The interesting ceremony will take place on the 25th inst.—the great anniversary of Independence of this country. The loyal Welshmen will quaff a flowing bumper to Independence and the railway. The National Government will be represented at the ceremony by Lieut. Colonel Fontana, the popular Governor of the Chubut territory. May the prospects of the colony and railway go hand in hand, and heaven forbid that their interests should clash, as feared in well-informed quarters.

"Paulatinamente." The Buenos Ayres Northern Railway Company have received two brand-new first-class passenger cars from Europe. As this rate the rolling-stock of the line will soon be sufficient for the requirements of traffic, and the Board at home deserve a vote of thanks for their activity in forwarding so fast and in such quantities the materials needed for the railway.

The Buenos Ayres Pacific Railway, which runs through the richest parts and most populous districts of Buenos Ayres, and taps the provinces of Santa Fe, Cordoba, and San Luis, did remarkably well in the month of March—only $26,209 and 14 cents loss, not quite $1000 per diem, viz;—

Governor Paz and Minister Gonnet yesterday signed the decree ordering the Government Notary to extend the necessary contract of a concession granted to Mr. Puleston of La Plata for the construction of 216 kilometres of railway, starting from Junin, on the Pacific and Provincial Railways, and passing through Lincoln, Lavalle, Fuerte San Martin, and Gainza, at a point bordering on the south-east of the Province of Cordoba.

Mr. Puleston has ten months, from the time that Parliament passes the bill through, to present his definite surveys, four months after approbation of latter to commence the line, and two years after commencement to conclude same.

This line has been anxiously waited for by the many concessionaires of "centros agricolas" near Lincoln, and by the owners of the very rich camps in that district, such as Messrs. José Fuentes, Ramon J. Carcano, Newberry, Moreno, etc.

As usual, Cannon Street has been too late (unless, indeed, in this instance Mr. Puleston represents that directorial locality), and the Pacific Directors will now regret that they were not content to ask for this natural feeder to their trunk line without exacting a 6 per cent guarantee.

The Del Carril concession from the rising port of Campana to Chacabuco will probably want to get hold of the Junin-Gainza line for themselves, and then make a grand trunk line from the coast to the rich camps of the fifth meridian; or the happy purchaser of the Provincial Railways, who will in consequence obtain the existing line from the port of San Nicolas to Junin.

We received yesterday the following communication which bears out our remarks in regard to the Western Railway. Our correspondent says that his train ran twice off the rails. Things are coming to a pretty pass:—

To the Editor of the STANDARD

Dear Sir,

I see some remarks in your paper this morning with regard to the Western Railway. This line is really a disgrace to the Government of any country, and if it belonged to a private company would never be allowed to be worked in its present dangerous condition, even in this easy-going land. In addition to the luggage train you refer to I may mention that the passenger train from Pergamino on Wednesday afternoon had a very narrow escape. We saw the engine and waggons of the goods train lying in the ditches on both sides of the line before reaching Lujan. After passing this station we ran off the line ourselves, and fortunately were able to bring up the train within twenty yards of an "alcantarilla." We got safely to Rodriguez, but half way between there and Moreno ran off the line for the second time, the engine dragging the carriages some twenty squares before we could communicate with the driver!

Yours truly,
A PASSENGER.

We shall continue to-day to make further extracts from Inspector Quesada's report on the Central Entre Riano. He says that there is only one locomotive to cope with the traffic on that part of the line now in working-order. So that there is no time-table, and trains run every second day. On the other side of the Gualeguay there are only two locomotives, one of which is fit for service. The manager, however, intends to hire other engines, and this would pay him well, for at kil. 205 there are goods for nearly 300 wagons.

The Tala and Gualeguay Bridges are being repaired, but they cannot possibly be ready before the middle of June. The question of the moment is to re-establish rail-communication between Uruguay and Parana.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The detestable weather interfered with everything yesterday, and and will probably do the same to-day. The cause of all the bad weather since October last is now said to be something wrong with old Saturn's ring. However, there was a good bit of news afloat to the effect that three or four holidays will be decreed during President Tajes's visit here. His Oriental Excellency will be accompanied by a prodigiously large party, over 300 people.

Patti sings to-night in Semiramis. This is the first Sunday night she has sung since her arrival. The battle between the two opera companies has now fairly commenced.

Nobody came to see the "Belgrano Tramway Horse" yesterday; we suppose in consequence of the rain. Even on canvas the poor brute appears to be getting thinner every day. It's a wonderful picture: So true to life.

The new winter theatre in the Florida Garden will be opened this evening. It's a nice little nook, and, with spicy performances, will, no doubt, do a roaring business, in every sense of the word.

We are requested to say that there will not be any Association Football to-day. Weather too excruciatingly bad.

As everybody expected, the races announced for to-day in Belgrano have been postponed on account of the weather. Jupiter Pluvius has not been alone in being out of sorts, as on Friday morning, Bismarck, who had been a strong favourite for the Premio Velocidad all the week, was attacked by his old enemy "gripes" and temporarily placed 'hors de combat.' The postponement till Thursday will, however, give him time to recover, and if only half his real self, he cannot lose the race.

We have received from Hartmann and Co., the following new publications; 'Elva' schottiche by Rizzatti and "Toujours ou jamais" by Waldteufel. This latter is certainly one of the most tuneful and danceable of the compositions of the modern Prince of Waltzes; if not already known everybody should at once make the acquaintance of this charming dream in dance measures.

We have to thank the "Sociedad Cooperativa de Panaderia", No. 90 in our street, for sending us yesterday a big basketful of the first loaves they have turned out. The bread is splendid. It is well worth the while of heads of families to keep their bread bill down by joining this Company. The shares are only ten dollars each.

Our distinguished colleague the London Times will find it hard to survive the blow given to it by its connection with Piggott. The falling off in its receipts is simply terrific Here is what a London correspondent says about it:—"One of the members of the company, co-partnership, or syndicate, "called by the public in ordinary parlance the Times," complained to his friends that his last share of the profits of that journal were £900, as compared with £3,600 in 1888. I should not care to give him as much as £900 for the amount he will receive next year, if certain claims for damages have in the meantime been disposed of. But the drop in the last Times dividend is variously stated by different sufferers. I hear of another case in which £600 fell to £70—a much heavier drop. The shareholders, I hear, are very savage with poor Mr. Buckle. But if Mr. Buckle had been called he would probably have told the court that if he had had a free hand the suicide of the Times would never have taken place."

Our Turfy subscribers will feel interested in the following snipping from an English exchange received yesterday:—"According to the sporting correspondent of an evening contemporary, two unlimited commissions are in the market to buy a racehorse for Buenos Ayres "to beat Bismarck"—"one of which, by the way, may have been executed in the reported purchase of Fullerton for 5,000l.—a lucky get-out for Lord Dudley of his original outlay of 4,500l. for that notoriously gay deceiver."

The pow-wow about the Census has created such a demand for the last volume that the book is at a premium. It is certainly worth reading—far more so than most plays and half the novels going. The Lord Mayor has declared that he intends to make it most unpleasantly hot for the guilty party: so the affair is not over yet.

Dr. Davison's tremendous revelations in the Prensa have created an Avernus-to-pay feeling in the circles interested. The Minister of the Interior no sooner read them than he ordered the City Improvement Commissioners to look into the matter, and a note was at once sent to Messrs. Bateman, Parsons and Bateman, asking them to rise and explain.

Argentina is now receiving emigration from the west as well as the east. Three thousand Chilians have cross

Centro Agricola "Castelli"

En la estacion GUERRERO, F.C.S.
Esta ubicado entre las Estaciones

Guerrero y Taillade

Lindando con las dos Estaciones

Esta ya pedida por el Gobierno a la empresa del Ferro-carril del Sud una estacion en este Centro Agricola.

Las tierras que componen este Centro son inmejorables; lo mejor de Castelli. Es necesario verlas para poder apreciarlas y convencerse que son las mas apropiadas para la agricultura, no solo por ser tierras altisimas y vegetales, sino por las facilidades que ofrece para el transporte de sus productos y a este respecto se encuentra en condiciones escepcionales pues sobre estar ubicado entre las estaciones Guerrero y Taillade de la Empresa del Ferra-carril del Sud. Se ha solicitado establecer otra estacion en este centro.

En estas condiciones el colono puede continuar con la hipoteca, redimiendola en los años que debe durar.

Estas tierras están acojidas á los beneficios de la ley de centros agricolas cuyas articulos principales transcribimos.

Art. 22—Los propietarios de tierras en los Centros Agricolas gozarán de una rebaja de veinticinco por ciento en los dctes establecidos para el transporte de su produccion en los Ferro-carriles.

Art. 41—Los creditos que el Banco de la Provincia acuerde á los propietarios de Centros agricolas, seran amortizados con un dies por ciento anual.

Art. 42—Toda escritura de concesion de Tierras que haga el Estado o las empresas en estos Centros se otorgara en papel simple quedando por consecuencia exenta de todo impuesto de ellos por esta causa.

CON POBLACIONES.

Para todos los gustos y todas las fortunas.

¡Atencion!
EN LOS DIAS
30 de Mayo y 2 de Junio
A LAS 12 DEL DIA

Procederemos a vender en remate publico y en los mismos terrenos, el primero de solares, quintas, y chacras que se dejan especificadas, que constituyen el famoso campo que fue de don Maria Faulkes, hoy del Consejo General de Educacion de la Provincia.—Por orden judicial dictada en el juicio sobre accion de cumplimiento seguido por el Consejo General de Educacion de la Provincia.

Este campo que constituye ejido del pueblo de Brandzen, se reparte:—El mejor partido, el mejor del Sud, el mejor de la Provincia.

El que lo conozca, admirará esto sin reserva; y el que no lo conozca, que se informe y confirmará lo asegurado.

Se encuentra cortado por dos vias ferreas, la del Sud y la de La Plata, se halla trazada una para el Monte; se proyecta un mercado de frutos, un tranvway a Chascomus y se establecera alli la estacion principal de la empresa que ha presentado al superior Gobierno el proyecto de una red de ferro-carriles de la Provincia. Hecho esto Brandzen tendra como ningun pueblo, quintas y chacras con un tranway. Fijese: Cada comprador sera dueño de dar a su terreno el destino que desee, pues esta operacion no esta sometida a las condiciones con que el Gobierno vende los terrenos de ejido. Grandes ventajas—La venta se efectuara una tercera parte al contado y los dos tercios restantes en cuatro 9 y 12 meses con la guarantia hipotecaria del mismo terreno y con el interes de ocho por ciento anual; cuya hipoteca podra cancelarse antes de su vencimiento si los compradores lo pidieren, pudiendo sustituirse por otra de mas largos plazos en los Bancos Hipotecarios de la Provincia o la Nacion.

Observar—Que el pueblo de Brandzen segun el mapa del Estado Mayor del Ejercito Nacional se encuentra situado a doce leguas y fraccion de kilometros de la Capital Federal, o sea una distancia igual que la ciudad de La Plata. Ifrte campo esta señalado para la agricultura, tambos, pastoreo de inverenada y establecimientos industriales. Por lo espuesto puede afirmarse que Brandzen es y sera una situacion industrial y comercial-mente Estrategica. Esto es un hecho real y evidente que puede palpar todo el que entienda de negocios. Tasaciones baisimas. Los solares se encuentran tasadas á cinco, nueve, quince, veinte y veinticinco centavos el metro cuadrado. Las quintas y medias chacras a 400 y 500 pesos m|n la hectarea. Las chacra a 200, 250, 300 y 400 la hectarea, la fraccion de Estancia con edificios e enatroclentas pesos la hectarea. Las dimensiones de los solares, quintas y chacras constan de los planos que los interesados podran pedir en nuestra casa de remates y en los demas puntos que mas adelante indicaremos.

Para esta grandiosa venta: Tenemos como base las dos terceras partes de las tasaciones respectivas de donde resulta que se vendera tirado y escepcionalmente barato, siendo la venta forzosa por retirar que liquidar el condominio.

Advertencias.—Devidamente autorizados estipulamos las siguientes bases: el boleto el diez por ciento en señas a todos los compradores admitiendo giros contra Bancos. No habra escepciones. Cosa de hurlo se transferira el remate para el dia de fiesta siguiente.

Por referencias y planos ocurrase en La Plata, nuestra Avenida 7 entre 49 y 50, Juan A. Carbonell y Cia. En Buenos Aires, estudio del Dr. Luis F. Pintos, Rivadavia 515 m|n. Brandzen, oficina del Escribano D. Rufino M. Martinez, quien autorizara todas las escrituras. Los interesados pueden tomar los dias 30 de Mayo y 2 de Junio en la capital tren que sale a las 7.30 y 9.30 de la Estacion Constitucion y de La Plata el que sale a las 7.35 a.m.

Escusamos decir que los titulos son garantidos porque los que nos conocen deben tener la seguridad que al encargarnosde esta operacion hemos revisado todos los documentos. 191 m8 jn2

Business at the first ring to-day was a reflection of the weather, dull and dreary, the announcement that the expected decrees of the Finance Minister have been put off until Monday acting as a wet blanket on the market, and keeping dealers still on the wheel of anxious expectancy. Operations naturally were meagre. Only 3,500 National Bank Shares changed hands for end of month, opening at 254, dropping to 252, rising to 253, and then falling off again to 252, closed half a point higher. For end of June the decline was even more severe, quotations opening at 253, falling away to 255.50, reacting to 257, and closing very weak at 256. There are so many sellers offering for this date that the prospects of an advance now are not so hopeful as some days ago, before the bombshell with regard to operations on time exploded in the ring. Much it seems hinges on the state of the money market, as if money is tight a "degringolade" is apprehended, whilst an easy market would of course militate in a contrary direction. In Cedulas, N and O, Provincial series, monopolized attention, large lots changing hands, but without any improvement in rates. Credito Real and Constructors both looked a trifle weak, though rates as yet shew no decline.

In exchange nothing is doing to-day, as the packet left, but rates keep up, which is a good sign.

The following is a summary of operations effected this afternoon during the first ring:—

The English steamer Sunbeam has gone aground off the Vuelta de San Antonio, the worst of the many spots in the river that offer such difficulty to navigation. It is feared that some other vessels may collide with the Sunbeam, as the current at that point is very strong.

Mr. Tonge, of the old-established Lincoln firm of William Foster and Co., Limited, was to-day welcomed on 'Change. Messrs. Foster and Co. are, as is well known, the manufacturers of the celebrated "Traga Mair," which, we understand, has taken first place in other maize-growing countries as it undoubtedly has in this.

A very important project was laid before the La Plata Legislature yesterday by Governor Paz, with a request that the Hon. members would give it their immediate attention. It proposes the emission of 50,400,000 gold dollars in bonds bearing 4½ o|o in gold and 1 o|o amortization, the Executive being authorized to increase amortization at any time, and the guarantee offered being the returns of the La Plata Port and general revenue of the province. It is proposed with the proceeds of this loan to pay off the Provincial 6 o|o loans of 18th October, 1872, 6th July, 1881, and 6th August, 1883, the sum of 7,400,000 gold dollars to be set aside to finish the complementary works of the port, public schools, and police stations, whilst whatever balance may remain over and above will be handed to the Provincial State Banks on such terms as the Government may determine. With regard to the law of 5th November, 1888, which is on precisely the same lines, it is stipulated that should the Executive carry it into effect, then the emission under present project will be reduced to 32 million gold dollars. The above are the principal provisions, and it is expected that the measure will soon be passed into law.

"An extraordinary general meeting of the members of the London and Argentine Bank was held yesterday at the City Terminus Hotel. It was also the first statutory meeting of the undertaking, and Mr. Sampson Lloyd, chairman of the company, presided, and explained that the object of meeting was twofold, and in the first instance, on his motion, a resolution was passed agreeing to make certain alterations in the articles of association in accordance with the requirements of the committee of the Stock Exchange. The object of the company was to obtain a quotation, and when the change has been made the directors would have power to refuse to register any transfer of shares of which anything remained unpaid, but could not refuse to register fully paid up shares. The chairman subsequently gave a "resume" of the present position of the undertaking. The capital of the company had he said, been all subscribed; indeed, there were 91,000 applications for the 50,000 which they had to allot. The allotment was made as fairly as possible, and, in view of the demand, the directors contented themselves with only enough for their proper qualification (hear, hear). Since then certificates had been issued, premises taken in Nicholas-lane, Mr Edward Arthur and Mr. Lovell Mullins appointed managers at London and Buenos Ayres respectively, and steps taken for the acquiring foreign premises. A great deal had to be done before the bank could get to work. It was proposed to alter its name to "The Anglo-Argentine Bank." A sum of £20,000 had been invested at 5 per cent. on short notice, but as soon as the bank commenced business more than the £100,000 paid up would be required, and it would be proposed almost immediately to make a call of £1 per share.—The proceedings then terminated."

The canalization of the Riachuelo is not such an easy work as might seem at first sight, for the deepening, widening, and straightening of the river bed in which such a work usually consists is but the smallest part of the task. The real difficulty consists in the removal of the railways, highroads, and bridges—some three or four in number: that is to say, the solid iron spans of the Ensenada and the Great Southern Railways, as likewise the level-crossings of Barracas and Puente Alsina. Without their removal, no solid work can be done, and unless the canalization works are well done it would be decidedly better to leave the muddy stream just as it is. According to the grand fundamental law of the land the transit of navigable rivers cannot be impeded on any pretext, therefore not alone the railway companies must bow, but also the very National Government, which, in assuming the debts of the province in 1880, also bought over the two highroads aforesaid; they are as much the property of the Nation is is the hat on the head of a Bolsa broker. With the railway companies the case is not so hard, inasmuch as the directories here and in London might easily have foreseen that the day was not far off when the canalization of this stream would be undertaken. This was why Mr. Demarchi bought the mud bank at the mouth of the river under the pretext of catching rats for the manufacture of gloves. The Government officials, regarding him as mad, chuckled in high glee; but this honourable Italian merchant was wiser in his generation and succeeding generations. Acknowledge his genius! To avoid disastrous inundations and wholesale loss of life the widening and deepening of the Riachuelo must be taken in hand at once; if not by Government, then by some private company, to whom every facility must be given for the prompt and perfect realization of this most necessary work.

Messrs. Daniel Duggan and J. Macdonald were accompanied on board by a large number of friends, who gave them a grand farewell breakfast this morning at the Bodega.

The London and Brazilian Bank drew a heavy amount of exchange for this packet; we hear the bills drawn are for account of Morton, Rose and Co., of London, who have just launched the Paraguay Railway Co., and the funds drawn for are to start the works in Paraguay. This is rather good news for our Paraguayan friends. The steamer leaves in the morning for Asuncion.

All the bank managers in town received this morning their invitations to the grand Government House banquet given in honour of President Tajes of Montevideo.

The sale for £160,000 sterling of the Nonguier Railway concession, called the Pobladoras Co., was the great news of the day, Messrs. Coghlan and others purchasers. The shareholders of this company have good reason to approve of this business, as it adds greatly to the value of the large areas of land bought up by the company.

It seems that yesterday there was a tremendous raid made by the Montevidean bears on the shares of the "Obras Publicas." They sold for the end of the month enormously, and then sold for cash close on 10,000 shares; prices dropped to par, but as one party came forward and bought for cash 6,000 shares, the market at once reacted, and now the bears find themselves heavily covered for the end of the month. The "descubierto" in the shares for the end of the month is said to be the heaviest ever known in the Montevidean market.

It is rumoured on 'Change that next week currency will be much easier in the market, as the large amount of paper taken off the market by the sale of gold will be lent out at 9 per cent per annum.

There seems no room to doubt that this year all the private banks in this market will come under the Free Baaking law, as the Minister of Hacienda's project of law, to be laid before Congress on Monday, has this for its object.

The s.s. Phœnician, Allan Line, from Glasgow, Liverpool, Havre, arrived to-day at Montevideo with 3,500 tons of cargo; she brings several animals which have arrived in good condition. Her papers and samples will be up by River Boat to-night.

The s. s. Borghese, Gellatly Line, from Antwerp arrived to-day at Montevideo with 2,500 tons of cargo papers; will be up to-night.

The sale was reported to-day of a large area of land, comprising about 180,000 sq. yards, and situated behind the Chacarita, at 2 dollars the square yard; sellers a syndicate of capitalists, and buyers Messrs. McLean and Mackern.

Business at the ring at the second hour was even duller than in the morning, and it is quite clear that the market is in a most undecided state, which, of course, tells on business. National Bank shares, however, improved in rates, advancing to 253 for end of month and 257 for end of June. Cedulas were neglected. Credite Real and Constructors a trifle weak, and Catalinas down to 147 for end of month. For other stocks there are positively no buyers.

The following is a summary of operations effected this evening at the second ring:—

May 20th O 170,000 at 75.20-10.20

With regard to the syndicate to take up 40,000 National Bank shares, its existence is again much questioned, but we heard from good sources to-day that a party who has been buying very heavily of late will not liquidate the operations, which certainly lends substantial colour to the fact that a large number of shares will be taken up. Money against the stock is also easier and we hear offered at 12 o|o, taking the shares at 220.

The following commercial telegrams were received by the Bolsa to-day:—

London, May 18th—Consols, 101¼; Treasury Bonds, 18; Hard Dollar Bonds, 63; Argentine 1881 Loan, 105; Argentine 1884 Loan, 99½; B. Aires 1870 Loan, 101; B. Aires 1882 Loan, 102. Exchange, Paris on London, 25.19 francs.

Havannah, 17th—Jerked-berf quoted at 15½ rls the arrobe.

New York, 17th—B. Aires are quoted at 16c. Bones for cargo 19.50. Boncash 20 dols.

We have received a note from Mr. Henry A. Livock, of the firm of Evans and Livock, advising us that he does not leave in the Atrato to-day, as a similar name amongst the list of passengers might lead to believe.

The National Bank granted to-day $158,863 in gold at a premium of 57.30 to 58 o|o.

The formality of burning 5 million dollars in shares of the Sociedad Territorial de la Plata was only complied with yesterday, thus leaving the capital reduced to 15 millions.

The National Bank discounted yesterday 1,020,000 dollars, principally in paper.

The following new Centro Agricola concessions have been approved by the Provincial Executive:

Emilio Vidal Souza, 5641 hectares of his land in the partido General Villegas.

Fernando Lopez Benedito and Laureano Gordon, 7992 hectares in Olavarria.

Toribio B. Pereyra, 12,000 hectares in Trenquelanquen.

Julio M. Balagues, 2,793 hectares in Guamini.

Mami and Aguilar, 2,541 hectares in Coronel Suarez.

The Messrs. J. Nelson and sons, 44, Tower Buildings, Liverpool, ship, by the Allan steamer Phœnician, from Liverpool to South America, on the 15th, a lot of twenty-six very valuable cattle. This is their first shipment of this season, and the cattle deserve more than a passing notice. During last season the Messrs. Nelson shipped over 300 head of cattle to South America, and from their past experience they are quite convinced that by continuing to send the best individuals of the breed they can find, they are doing good work for their friends on the River Plate. The lot gathered at the Liverpool Docks this week for shipment on the 15th, are very highly spoken of, and we would specially mention the females from the Rotherstorpe herd, those from Bearl, and the prize heifer from Stearsby. The bull Matador, as a four-year-old, is acknowledged by many good judges to be on of the best of the breed that has appeared for many years. Of the twenty-six head, fifteen are Shorthorn females, ten are Shorthorn bulls, and one an Aberdeen-Angus bull. The Shorthorn females are Sweetbriars 99th, 102nd, and 135th, Freak, Flight, Festoon, Fair Hilda and Western 2nd from Mr. Faulkner's herd at Rotherstorpe, Northampton; Fancy Fanny and Rosa 11th from Mr. Geo. Britten's herd at Overstone, Northampton; Premium Princess, Cherry Flower, and Dakota Cherry from the Messrs. Angus's herd at Bearl, Stocksfield-on-Tyne; and Moss Rose, bred by Mr. S. Frank, Stearsby Easingwold. The bulls are Matador, bred by Mr. D. C. Bruce; Magician, bred at Rothersthorpe; Famous and Regent, bred at Overstone; Goldsmith, bred by Mr. A. Cruickshank, Sittyon; Quartermaster, bred by Mr. A. Scott, Towie Barclay; Sir Ruthven, first prize at Lincoln, and bred by Mr. J. Turner; Veracity, bred by Mr. Tennant; Indian Prince, bred at Bearl; and Forrell, bred by Mr. D. C. Bruce Broadland. The Aberdeen-Angus bull is Prince of Aberdeen 6,332, bred by Mr. Skinner, Drumin, from a Pride of Aberdeen cow.—Live Stock Journal.

Gold rules somewhat stiffer in the open market and was quoted this evening 157.80 for Monday and 158 end month, buyers, being about half point over the rates of the morning.

As the limits of properly running down to the river have never been properly determined, the Government has ordered the Engineers' Department to take the matter in hand, and settle it, the limits to be fixed according to the highest water mark in the ordinary state of the river. A plan with these limits set forth will then be drawn up.

Our readers will find elsewhere notice of an important auction of land to take place shortly near Hurlingham Station. As the Conchas river is to be canalized, land in that quarter deserves to be looked after.

SHEEP DIPPING POWDER.

It has been in use since the year 1843 and is now used upon more than 50,000,000 sheep every year

Equally good for Dipping or Handcuring.

Guarranted always the same Strength.

Read what estancieros say of it;

GEO. BELL, "Estancia Grande," Pereira
I have found it the best I have ever used. my sheep are perfectly sound, and these condition and the good look of the wool I attribute to the above Dip.

R. JACON, Pergamino
I shall not cease to express my opinion that Cooper's Dip is without rival its results as well as for its cheapness.

ERNESTO MADERA. Maipu
The result obtained has been so satisfactory that I think it difficult to find a better and more certain remedy.

THOS. BOLLAND, "Flor de Mayo," Pergamino
None has give me such satisfactory results as Cooper's Powders.

TEODORO PETERSON, "La Belgica," Ayacucho
Cooper's Powers have given me better result than any remedy I have used yet.

GEO. E. CATTY, "El Divisorio," Bahia Blanca.
I have used Cooper's Powders for three years with the very best results on the cure of scab, and I consider that my wool has improved in appearance since I have used it.
